

Senior Supply Chain Planner – BLACKMORES

Opportunity for a supply chain professional to drive continued improvement in a dynamic & growing business

Join Australia's leading Natural Health brand

Location – Warriewood.

Blackmores is Australia's leading natural health brand. Our quality range of vitamin, minerals, herbal and nutritional supplements, and continued support of the community and environment, are among the many reasons Blackmores is the most trusted name in natural health.

We are passionate about delivering high quality products and services and we always employ people who share this vision.

We are seeking a Supply Chain professional to take the lead in driving best practice and continuous improvement to support our strategic objectives.

Reporting to the Supply Chain Planning Manager, the purpose of this role is to drive best practice and policy across planning and inventory management processes, optimising planning parameters and inventory levels. You will also be responsible for implementing planning processes to support the growth & innovation within the business.

We see you being tertiary qualified in a relevant discipline and also possessing broad supply chain expertise within a similar industry or FMCG.

You will be rewarded with attractive remuneration packages commensurate with experience and participate in our profit share program.
